Brilliance!!Von NinaWow. I am completely and utterly speechless, still trying to process, to recover from what Ive just read. FAADE by D. H. Sidebottom and Ker Dukey comes with a warning a warning that should be taken seriously. It is surely uncomfortable, sick, twisted, deceptive and a complete mind-f. and with my own twisted soul I herewith proudly admit that I loved every second of it, although my mind is still spinning from the revelation in the end of the book, still continuously reeling with WTFs. This brilliance! Mind-f at its finest!Ker Dukey is not new to me. Ive read all her works and she never ceases to amaze me. Her books always stay with me long after Ive finished reading them and that is rare to me. I have to admit I have yet to read a book written by D.H. Sidebottom alone, but this is about to happen sooner rather than later!Together they make an amazing dynamic duo, you can never guess where one stopped writing and the other picked up. Their writing is beautiful and flows seamlessly, effortlessly.As Im used to when writing reviews for Ker Dukeys books, it isnt easy to write a review about FaCade without giving too much away, because nothing was ever what it seemed you think you finally figured out what this story was all about or at least you thought to have a general idea , only to be proven utterly wrong when turning to the next page. And it goes on and on the more you find out, the deeper the spiral of darkness is taking you. Whats a lie? Whats the truth? There couldnt be a more suitable title for the book than Faade."This book leads into a second book. You will get answers but the story will continue into a final installment."Thats part of the warning in the beginning of the book a quite fair move by the authors and a declaration I urge you to take to heart, because yes, you will be given answers, but the last few pages will raise a whole lot more questions than you had to begin with! The real story is just about to beginWaking up in a cell without any memories, Star feels trapped and humiliated, put on display for strangers amusements. Yet seeing her captor stirs something inside her, some kind of feeling she cannot quite comprehend.Weeks of captivity pass and chunks of her memory slowly return, confusing her even more. How can she remember her captor being a loving and caring man her fianc for that matter? How can it be that the man she refers to as her soul mate turned into that ice-cold and vicious monster holding her captive? What is real? What is not? What if every memory you are allowed to have is nothing but a faade?You have to read to find out! And I highly recommend for you to do so! ---but maybe you want to wait until December, until the sequel releases, because I can promise you this: you are in for a threat to your sanity and waiting for the conclusion will only make it worse!!

KurzbeschreibungWARNING! This book is Dark erotica.This book contains situations that some may find offensive. If you are sensitive to graphic violence read with caution. This book also leads into a second book. You will get answers but the story will continue into a final instalment. You have been warned. Enjoy. You meet someone. You date. You fall in love. You marry.The four simple rules of love.Wrong! Im getting married but Id never met him before now, never dated him, never fell in love. I have no access to the memories of the most magical time of anyones life.My mind wont allow me to evoke the past, I cant remember those simple stages to lead me to the fourth .I cant comprehend why I would have ever wanted to marry someone like Dante. I should never have passed the first stage, although, I may have seen him through the eyes of the woman I once was, this me that lives, breathes here now, cant understand how we made it to the next stage.Im not sure, without memories, how I know that this voice inside me, telling me I would never have chosen him, speaks some truth, I just know. Hes controlling, arrogant, callous and violent, and utterly hell bent on humiliating and degrading me Like watching me falter, watching me struggle to comply and be the woman he asked to marry, powers him- as though he wants to break me piece by piece. Fiber by fiber. Until all thats here is the shell he created from a soul that I once owned.Now my memories are slowly returning. And they show me a completely different side to meeting him. Our dates, falling in love. The Dante haunting me in the shadows of my mind is loving, gentle and utterly enamored with me, nothing like the man with me now.And this is what taunts me. My tender lover turned into a debauched, cruel sadist who is determined to consume my life, destroy my mind and murder my spirit.I am, Star, and just like with some stars in the sky, the light you see is an echo, a faade, I am already goneI am a no one.Especially to him. To him I am the dark in his desires, the corrupt in his depravity.The sin in his immoralityKurzbeschreibungWARNING!
