Von Diane Alberts : Falling for the Groomsman (Wedding Dare series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Falling for the Groomsman (Wedding Dare series):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. hot start to a new romance seriesVon ClaudiaThis is the first book in the "Wedding Dare"-series and it tells the story of Christine, best friend of the bride, and Tyler, the brides big brotherChristine and Tyler have some history, nobody knows about. years ago, he was her first lover and ran away afterwards. since then Christine is more than insecure about herself as a person. Tyler regrets running away from her after their encounter but doesn't know what to do about it. When they meet again, the attraction once again burns hot. This story is about second chances - normally not my favorite plot, but "Falling for the Groomsman" was a nearly perfect combination of story telling, sizzling chemistry and romantic feelings. It is a good combination of conflict, chemistry, love and a good amount of hot bedroom scenes. I liked the main couple and would have loved to learn more about the other characters involved - but that is what the other books are for. So I am waiting and see what the other authors have in store for the other couples. All in all it was a quick and easy read with a perfect ending. I absolutely love it when the epilogue gives us the scene we were waiting for. An ARC was provided to me by Entangled Publishing in exchange for an honest review
