Von Catherine Ferguson : Green Beans and Summer Dreams before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Green Beans and Summer Dreams:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Light and funVon Jacky from GermanyChick lit with the feel-good factor. The characters and the story were absolutely typical for the genre, with the lovely octegenarian neighbour coming up with surprises. Predictable and yet fun to read.

KurzbeschreibungThe fabulous novel from ebook bestseller, Catherine Ferguson. As fresh and bubbly as a pint of homemade lemonade on a hot day, this is the only book you need this summer!When Izzy Frasers long-term boyfriend walks out on her, shes left in a bit of a pickle. Yes, she has the house of her dreams, but she now has a crippling mortgage to pay on her own.So she takes matters into her own hands and, having always been a keen gardener, decides to set up Izzys Organics, delivering crates of fresh fruit and vegetables to local villagers.Along the way she meets all sorts of characters, including the very handsome Erik and the very Grumpy Dan. But can Izzy sort the wheat from the chaff? And will her new business sow the seeds of change that she wants?A funny, heartwarming tale, full of the joys of summer. Perfect for fans of Jenny Colgan and Lucy Diamond.KurzbeschreibungThe fabulous novel from ebook bestseller, Catherine Ferguson.
