traumatischer Erfahrungen mit Männern nicht damit, dass sich Theo auch für sie interessieren könnte. Aber wie der Titel schon sagt: "He loves Lucy." Für alle, die die Story vom hsslichen Entlein lieben, das sich zum schneen Schwan mausert, ist der Roman genau richtig - kurzweilig, humorvoll, nett zu lesen. Was dem Roman zu fünf Sternen fehlt, ist ein bisschen der Glanz, der ganz besondere Charme, den ich hier nicht finden konnte. Auch fällt mancher Handlungsstrang fällt zu kurz aus, z.B. die Intrigen von Lucys Chef oder die erste Liebe von Theos Bruder Buddy. Trotzdem: Gute Unterhaltung! 9 von 10 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Great read - as long as you question the love Von Customer I really connected with Lucy, the heroine. Although it was a bit of a stretch to believe a 100 pound weight loss in 1 year, Lucy remained a completely believable and very likeable character, because the author gives her a much more complex background than just the weight. Unfortunately, she doesn't manage that with Theo, Lucy's personal trainer. The twin facts that he's hoping to re-enter med school with his part of the money win, and that he's taking care of a brother with Down Syndrome, seem to be added to make him DEEP. As in: he's not just a personal trainer, he's a caring person. And it doesn't translate until the middle of the story. However, I did read this within 4 hours, it's a real page-turner and the tension and heat are very well maintained. The climax of the story is well reached and deeply touching and I was left very happy for Lucy. So, as long as you don't need your heroes very well developed and complex, not to mention with personal demons, this book should be right up your alley. It's all about HER, and it's very well done. Also, the author seems to have done her research concerning nutrition and fitness and it shows up on every page without over-burdening the story. 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Wunderbares Buch, das ich sicher behalten werde Von booklover 67 Ich habe das Buch vor kurzem während einer Fastenkur im Urlaub gelesen und konnte mich wahrscheinlich deshalb so gut mit der Heldin identifizieren und ihrem Kampf um die leidigen Pfunde. Lucy wird von ihrem Boss gentigt in dessen Makeover-Show (Vorher/Nachher-Show) mitzumachen, bei der sie vierzig Kilo innerhalb eines Jahres verlieren soll mithilfe eines persönlichen Fitnesstrainers. Dafür wird ein hoher Geldpreis ausgesetzt, den sich Lucy mit dem Fitnesstrainer teilen soll, falls sie die Auflagen erfüllt. Der Druck, der auf ihr lastet, ist also enorm. Lucy hatte aber ihre Gründe so dick zu werden (diese werden langsam im Laufe des Buches enthüllt), für sie ist ihre Schokoladensucht Seelentröster und Schutzhaut in einem und eigentlich hat sie keine Lust bei diesem Deal mitzumachen. Aber der Fitnesstrainer, ein ebenso sympathischer wie hbscher Zeitgenosse, weckt Ambitionen und Gefühle in ihr, die sie dann doch bei der Stange halten. Klingt erst mal etwas klischeehaft und war es zum Teil auch, aber Lucys Nte sind behrend und realistisch geschrieben und auch der Held ist mehr als nur ein toller Body mit six pack. Er hat seine eigenen Gründe, bei dem Deal mitzumachen, er braucht das Geld um sein abgebrochenes Medizinstudium wiederaufzunehmen und ist alles andere als oberflächlich, weswegen er auch nicht all die Angebote von verliebten Fitnessstudioingennerinnen annimmt, die in ihm nur einen schneen Mann ohne Hirn sehen. Lucy ist ihm gleich sehr sympathisch, es ist sozusagen Mgen auf den ersten Blick. Seine Liebe zu ihr entdeckt er aber realistischerweise erst als sie zwar noch bergewichtig, aber doch schon wieder angenehme weibliche Formen hat. Die Liebesgeschichte zwischen beiden ist uerst romantisch und s und was mir besonders positiv auffällt, beide verlieben sich mehr als in nur das uere des Anderen. So etwas ist ja in modernen Liebsromanen eher selten zu finden.
